Camp Details

This camp takes place in Wilmington, Delaware at Ursuline Academy on the Serviam Fields. Campers are grouped by age, experience and skill level, giving each athlete the opportunity to improve their lacrosse play in a fun and challenging environment. This camp is designed for players to improve their technique, develop a better understanding of the game, increase self-confidence, and make new friends. Instructional highlights include offensive and defensive skills, game situations and small game strategies. Campers are trained individually in all of the major fundamental areas of the game: cradling, catching, passing skills, leading to developing offensive and defensive skills. Special goal keeping instruction will be provided.
